*We exist to exhibit God, to display his glory.
We serve as canvases for his brush stroke, papers for his pen, soil for his seeds, glimpses of his image. ~ Max Lucado*

Greetings from the church family at FBC as this strange winter approaches spring!

As always, we are busy and productive as we serve and honor the Lord. Pastor Andrew and his family are away in Ohio visiting Amanda's grandparents. We so enjoyed them when they were able to make the trip to Maine. As you can imagine, life will pick up its pace when Andrew returns! We so appreciate his energy, enthusiasm and many capabilities. Our weekly attendance grows as he and Pastor Jay offer such challenging, in-depth sermons. And we have recently accepted new members, Pat Johnston and Stephanie Dakin into our fellowship. Blessings abound!

CANTATA NEWS

We are busy preparing THEN CAME THE MORNING, a meaningful and beautiful piece of music to sing on Saturday and Sunday, March 23 and 24 at 3 PM. Easter is early this year, on March 31, so Palm Sunday comes especially early! We have 44 singers, many new ones also, and this promises to be an amazing weekend of praise. Be sure to join us... and invite others to share the Easter story.

GROUP WORK CAMP

Pastor Andrew will be the camp manager of this summer's Group Work Camp. He recently received extra training in Maryland and progress in forging ahead. This is a whole community effort and provides home building and repair services to those who apply. There are MANY worthwhile projects worthy projects to choose from. A committee is presently choosing which ones will be done this summer. Over 200 students from around the US will arrive Sunday, June 23 and work Monday through Friday. They are housed at Ridgeview Community School and can be seen during the week at worksites all over town! This is a super opportunity for service in our rural area. Thanks to all who make this happen!

March GREETERS

HIS LIGHT FOR HAITI

Ministry continues to be extremely challenging in Haiti where gangs of outlaws roam the cities and countryside. But Pastor Wawa is able to be in touch with Laurie Shepard and Janet Grant and assures them that the mission there continues in Port au Prince providing Bible studies for kids and their parents. There are Saturday and afterschool activities for the youth and the mission pays for tuition for children to attend school. Pastor Wawa and his wife, Josette, and the Grants and Shepards will meet in FL on March 10 for several days for updates and spiritual renewal. Please pray that Pastor Wawa's Visa can be updated. We will have much more information to present in the April newsletter. Please keep filling your coin boxes for this mission. We have been blessed to be a part of it for many years.

MISSION TRIP FOR YOUTH

Many thanks for the great financial support as our youth prepare to go to Costa Rica, August 2 through the 12th. The movies have brought in needed monies and more may be coming soon. The focus for this month's fundraiser is collecting soda bottles. Please bring in your extras!

Here are our upcoming dates for church lunches and dinners, add them to your calendar.

- Sunday, March 17- wear green and enjoy a meal
- Sunday, May 19 - Spring Salad Supper
- Saturday, June 29 - baked Bean supper
- Sunday, August 18 - Church picnic at Davis camp

Heart of Maine Resource Center

We need your help. We only have enough funding for one more food distribution. Donate today to ensure that our neighbors have access to food and we can continue our food distributions.
